Disclosure to the alleged victim, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the institution against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of the crime or offense

Blush School of Makeup will, upon written request, disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in 18 U.S.C. § 16), the results of any disciplinary proceeding against a student who is an alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim of such crime or offense is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim will be treated as the alleged victim.

Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

The School has established procedures to immediately notify the campus community upon the confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on a campus. These procedures provide for rapid notice to local law enforcement and administration to evaluate and confirm an emergency or dangerous situation and if confirmed, for School administrators to determine the appropriate campus to be notified and the content of the notification.

The School will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of emergency/dangerous situation notifications and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Fire alarm systems are present and active in all campus facilities. In the event of an emergency and/or fire alarm, occupants must evacuate from the building. It is helpful to have reviewed and practiced the building evacuation procedures prior to an evacuation. As a general guideline, stop working as soon as it is safe to do so and gather personal belongings, such as glasses, keys and purse or handbag. Use the nearest door with an EXIT sign to leave the building. Proceed to your designated assembly area, report for a head count and stay in the area until you receive direction from emergency responders or authorized staff.

Following are the titles of the persons responsible for carrying out the actions/procedures described in the above paragraphs: School Director, Associate School Director, Local Law Enforcement Officers, Admissions Representatives, Educators and/or Administrative Staff.

The dissemination of emergency information to the larger community shall be coordinated by the School Director in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies.

The School Director is responsible for testing the emergency response and evacuation procedures on at least an annual (calendar year) basis and for documenting such testing. Documentation for each test shall include a description of the exercise, the date, the time, and whether the test was announced or unannounced. Such testing may include a review of procedures by the School Director and local law enforcement officers, meetings with responsible persons to review and walk-through procedures, and tests of communication equipment.

Blush School of Makeup's San Francisco campus consists of a portion of retail space on the lobby level of a financial district high rise. If an emergency or dangerous situation is confirmed, the campus procedures provide for any one of several School administrators, School Director, or law enforcement officers to authorize a mass notice to the appropriate segment(s) of the campus using a campus emergency notification system. The designated assembly area is the front of the building near the street entrance of the Comerica Bank at One Embarcadero Center.

Missing Student Notification

Blush School of Makeup does not have any on- or off-campus housing facilities.

Factors that may determine whether persons are cohabiting include, but are not limited to:

 - Rape –
 - (A) Rape is an act of sexual intercourse accomplished with a person not the spouse of the perpetrator, under any of the following circumstances:
 - (1) Where a person is incapable, because of a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability, of giving legal consent, and this is known or reasonably should be known to the person committing the act. Notwithstanding the existence of a conservatorship pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the prosecuting attorney shall prove, as an element of the crime, that a mental disorder or developmental or physical disability rendered the alleged victim incapable of giving consent.
 - (2) Where it is accomplished against a person's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the person or another.
 - (3) Where a person is prevented from resisting by any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance, and this condition was known, or reasonably should have been known by the accused.

Blush School of Makeup offers guest speakers, posters, and/or a variety of events throughout the year to bring about awareness to these issues.

Procedures to follow in the case of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, including:

Preserving Evidence

It is important that victims take steps to preserve and collect evidence; doing so preserves the full range of options available, be it through the university's administrative complaint procedures or criminal prosecution. To preserve evidence:

1. do not wash your face or hands
2. do not shower or bathe
3. do not brush your teeth
4. do not change clothes or straighten up the area where the assault took place
5. do not dispose of clothes or other items that were present during the assault, or use the restroom
6. seek a medical exam immediately

If the victim has already cleaned up from the assault, he/she can still report the crime, as well as seek medical or counseling treatment.

Reporting

Any person who believes he or she has been the victim of sexual harassment or violence by a student, faculty member, administrator or other School personnel of Blush School of Makeup should report the occurrence to any agent or responsible employee of the School. An employee may be required only to report the harassment to other school officials who have the responsibility to take appropriate action or to take the appropriate action themselves if they are a designated official.

The victim has the option to notify proper law enforcement authorities, including local police. The victim has the option to be assisted by campus authorities in notifying law enforcement authorities if the victim chooses. The victim also has the option to decline to notify such authorities.

Rights of Victims

Victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking have the right to choose whether they want to pursue criminal or civil remedies in court and/or administrative remedies through the School. Victims also have the right not to pursue a criminal, civil or administrative remedy. When a student or employee victim reports to the School that they have been a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, the School will provide the victim with a written explanation of their rights or options relating to the following:

- Resources for victims (including resources in the areas of victim advocacy, counseling, health, mental health, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid and other areas);
- Non-reporting options;
- Understanding confidentiality versus privacy;
- Law enforcement reporting options, including medical exams and the importance of preserving evidence;

- Civil reporting options & protective orders;
- School reporting options, including the investigative and disciplinary process;
- School-issued No Contact Orders; and

Procedures the Institution Will Follow in Reporting

Blush School of Makeup will protect the confidentiality of victims and other necessary parties in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Clery Act Reporting

Blush School of Makeup does not publish the names of victims or other personally identifiable information regarding victims in the Daily Crime Log or in the crime statistics that are disclosed in the Annual Security Report. Furthermore, if a Timely Warning is issued on the basis of a report of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, the name of the victim and other personally identifiable information about the complainant will be withheld.

Confidentiality for Accommodations or Protective Measures

The School will protect the privacy of everyone involved in a report of sexual violence to the greatest degree possible under applicable law and School policy. Personally identifiable information about the complainant and other necessary parties will be shared only on a need-to-know basis, e.g., to those who are investigating the report or those involved in providing support services to the victim, including interim measures. By only sharing personally identifiable information with individuals on a need-to-know basis, the School will maintain as confidential any interim measures and remedies provided to the victim, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the School to provide interim measures and remedies.

Written Notification Regarding Counseling, Health, Etc.

Blush School of Makeup will provide written notification to students and employees about existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid and other services available for victims, both within the institution and in the community.

The School will make such accommodations or provide such protective measures if the victim requests them and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to local law enforcement.

Procedures for Disciplinary Action

Types of Disciplinary Proceedings

If you believe that you have experienced or witnessed harassment or sexual violence, notify your Instructor, Associate School Director or Blush School of Makeup School Director as soon as possible after the incident. Do not allow an inappropriate situation to continue by not reporting it, regardless of who is creating the situation. In order to facilitate the investigation, your complaint should include details of the incident or incidents, names of the individuals involved and names of any witnesses. In response to all complaints, Blush School of Makeup promises prompt and equitable resolution through a reliable and impartial investigation of complaints, including the opportunity for both parties to present witnesses or other evidence. The time necessary to conduct an investigation will vary based on complexity but will generally be completed within sixty (60) days of receipt of the complaint. The School shall maintain confidentiality for all parties to the extent possible, but absolute confidentiality cannot be guaranteed. In cases where a victim does not give consent for an investigation, the School will weigh the victim's request for confidentiality against the impact on School safety to determine whether an investigation must proceed. Complainants should be aware that in a formal investigation due process generally requires that the identity of the charging party and the substance of the complaint be revealed to the person charged with the alleged crime.

Standard of Evidence

The preponderance of the evidence standard will apply to investigations and disciplinary proceedings arising from an allegation of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, meaning Blush School of Makeup will evaluate whether it is more likely than not that the alleged conduct occurred.
